

Press Release - Toronto, December 19, 2020

The International Renewable Energy Academy invites you to celebrate a new practical collaborative agreement with the Earth Charter Secretariat to advance COVID-Safe educational initiatives focused on the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals

The International Renewable Energy Academy (IREA) announces today a new collaborative agreement with Costa Rica's Earth Charter Secretariat. The agreement aims at developing an innovative sustainable development educational and knowledge mobilization partnership to advance the adoption of the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals (UNSDGs) in as many educational organizations as possible.

IREA and the Earth Charter Secretariat invites members of the press and sustainability-oriented organizations and individuals to an online event that will be broadcast LIVE from Costa Rica this Tuesday December 22, 2020...

Earth Charter Event

Date: Tuesday, 22 December 2020

Time: 8:00AM Costa Rica time (GMT-6)

<https://www.youtube.com/user/ECInternational>

Dr. José Etcheverry, Director of IREA notes that this strategic partnership will facilitate new online COVID-safe experiential education and capacity development opportunities that will be announced very soon for 2021-2025. Details of the partnership can be found at IREA's web portal and by contacting Dr. J. Etcheverry at: rejose@yorku.ca

International Renewable Energy Academy www.irea.yorku.ca

Earth Charter Secretariat <https://earthcharter.org>